

You're the One I've violated, and you've seen it all, seen the full extent of my evil.
You have all the facts before you;
whatever you decide about me is fair.
I've been out of step with you for a long time,
in the wrong since before I was born.
What you're after is truth from the inside out.
Enter me, then; conceive a new, true life.
Soak me in your laundry and I'll come out clean,
scrub me and I'll have a snow-white life.
Tune me in to foot-tapping songs,
set these once-broken bones to dancing.
Don't look too close for blemishes,
give me a clean bill of health.
God, make a fresh start in me,
shape a Genesis week from the chaos of my life.
Don't throw me out with the trash,
or fail to breathe holiness in me.
Bring me back from gray exile,
put a fresh wind in my sails!
Give me a job teaching rebels your ways
so the lost can find their way home.
Commute my death sentence, God, my salvation God,
and I'll sing anthems to your life-giving ways.
Unbutton my lips, dear God;
I'll let loose with your praise.

Singing Workshops and Christmas Choir

For the Talent Scheme, Joyce Stroud is planning to run a singing workshop and to bring together a Christmas Choir. The workshop day may need to be in January (provisionally 21st). This would include exercises and tips on how to improve your singing in a healthy way and to learn and rehearse a small selection of items to be performed at the end of the day. Others would be welcome to attend the performance and share in refreshments. Provisional fee for the day £10 per person.

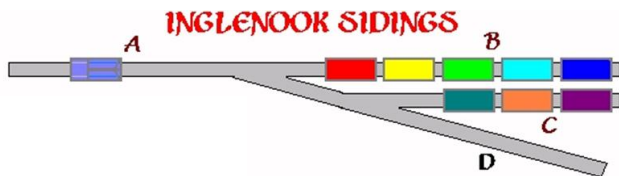

For the Christmas Choir, I am thinking of rehearsals on alternate Tuesday or Wednesday evenings (to fit round House groups, Guild, etc.) in November and December (with extras nearer the date). If you are interested in either or both please email joyce.stroud@btinternet.com your availability or fill in the form on the board in the Welcome Room.

Inglenook Shunting Puzzle

Presented by Peter Nicholson

Try your hand and show your talent. Selected Sundays, during coffee.
